

2017-2018 ID Scholarships

Application Process:

Once admitted to the university, students should login to their MyState account and complete the General Scholarship Application. At that point, students will be eligible for the university and department scholarships they qualify for with no necessary further action on their part (auto-match). Some scholarships have an additional application process (apply-to); students should login to their MyState account after completing the General Scholarship Application to see if any of these scholarships are available to them and complete the additional application steps for each.

Application Deadlines:

- Incoming Freshmen: December 1 (for the following academic yr.)
- Current and Entering Transfer Students: March 1 (for the following academic yr.)

Available Scholarships:

In addition to scholarships offered through the Office of Admissions and Scholarships and other scholarships, there are a variety of scholarships available for interior design students. The number of scholarships awarded and scholarship dollar amounts vary by year.

Linda M. Clark Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Interior design students are eligible in the spring of their second-year in the program. Recipients are awarded based on GPA, campus involvement, and involvement in the Interior Design Program.

Sherry Wingo Memorial Scholarship

Interior design students are eligible in the spring of their second-year in the program. Recipients are awarded based on GPA, campus involvement, and involvement in the Interior Design Program.

There are numerous scholarships available nationally to students studying interior design. In recent years, MSU interior design students have received the following:

- Celia Moh Scholarship - The Celia Moh Scholarships cover the cost of full-time tuition, fees, room, board and books for college juniors and seniors at Appalachian State University, Catawba Valley Community College, East Carolina University, High Point University, Kendall College of Art & Design, Mississippi State University, North Carolina State University, and Virginia Tech. - Gilchrist Memorial Scholarship - Awarded by the Southeastern Home Furnishings Association
- The American Home Furnishings Alliance Scholarship - The world's largest, most influential trade organization in home furnishings provides scholarships targeted toward students planning careers in the furniture and home-furnishings industries. Eligible students must be pursuing furniture and home furnishings-related degrees and are selected based on their commitment to the furniture industry as well as GPA and class standing.
