

INSTITUTE OF CLASSICAL ARCHITECTURE
& ART

&

Mississippi State University School of Architecture
Present

A WORKSHOP IN CLASSICAL ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Image: Dan Camp Cotton District Development, Photo by Meghan Bean

The ICAA Workshop introduces Classical Architecture as a living language to encourage appreciation of the enduring forms which shape our built environment. The program includes professional presentations featuring case studies of recent work in this field, and hands-on drawing to explore the grammar of the classical elements and their application on the campus of MSU.

Sponsored by Dan and Gemma Camp, founder and developer of Starkville's Cotton District

Location

Giles Hall Auditorium, Mississippi State University, College View Drive, Starkville, MS 39759

Date

Friday, February 28: 1:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Saturday, February 29: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Credit

5 AIA HSWs and 8 credits towards the ICAA Certificate in Classical Architecture

Registration

Students: Free
Professionals: $75

For more information and to register visit classicist.org/education/workshops or email education@classicist.org